

Company

A pysanka (Ukrainian: писанка, plural: pysanky) is a Ukrainian Easter egg, A Ukrainian folk tradition of decorating whole eggshells with elaborate geometric patterns and pictures using a wax-resist method. The word pysanka comes from the verb pysaty, "to write" or "to inscribe", as the designs are not painted on, but written (inscribed) with beeswax. Design and decorate your own Pysanka.

Name _____

BB Company _____ School Year _____

Company Section are in year 7, 8, 9 or 10